The change will put every room at the disposition of the patrons of the hotel.

It is expected that construction upon he new buildings will be commenced very soon, so that the work may be finished by the spring. The management has other improvements in contemplation and there will be no delay in pushing them to rapid completion as soon as the main enterprise of the winter has been put through.

PRIMO BEER WAS NEY'S WATERLOO

Pakes Furnished Fun in Police Court.

Emil Ney, who alleges that he is descendant of Napoleon's favorite marshal, occupied space on the mourners' bench in the District Court yesterday. He was charged with drunkenness.

"Emil Ney," shouted the officer of the ourt, but the bibulous bailiff remained eated, and it took gentle urging on the part of the clerk of the court to make him stand up. "Guilty or not guilty?" asked the

"Dunno," said Ney in a woozy voice; may have been. Had a drink or twoexcushon of duty-aln't goin' to fine me, are yer-uncle wasser great man. "Two dollars and costs, Mr. Ney," coo-

Ney pungled up the $2, but shied at the osts. When pressed he coughed up the needful, but threatened to fire everyone the court room out of their jobs. The cases against Ah Sin and Ah Sang harged with assault and battery on Ah Kim, were nolle pros'd, and the parties left the court. On the stairway Ah Sang and Ah Kim came together and fought a lively round. It sounded in court as if a seismie disturbance was in progress and the occupants of the court room rushed out helter skelter to find out wao was being killed. "Bring 'em up here!" roared sudge Wilcox; and presently the two beiligernt pakes were brought before him. "Forty-eight hours each for contempt of court," quoth he; "and I'm sorry I can't give you hard labor, so that you might exhaust some of your superfluous nergy in a good cause." The Chun Yee Pbel case was passed long to Judge Dickey. Dr. Winslow being still too unwell to appear in court, the assault and battery case pending against him was continued intil moved on. John Callahan, charged with vagrancy and who is looking for a ship to transport him to a more congenial clime, was emanded indefinitely, and will be aided and abetted by the police department in Kalua and Hattle Harimea, native edies with a past, were arraigned on a harge of vagrancy.
